-Correspondence, 1978 (not about Vietnam).

-Correspondence, 1978-1979, mostly personal, including appeals for money from Harvard, letter of thanks from Harvard President Derek Bok.

-Letter from Alfred Weitland, German Socialist.

-Correspondence, 1976, mostly personal, including greetings on his 70th birthday.

-Correspondence 1968-1969, mostly personal.

-Correspondence, 1970-1971, mostly personal.

-Correspondence, 1974, mostly personal.

-Correspondence, 1972, mostly personal.

-Correspondence, 1976, with organization with which Mr. & Mrs. Buttinger were affiliated, or to which they had made contributions.

-Correspondence, 1970-1972, mostly personal, including letters relating to Buttinger's gift to the Soviet Union of copies of Lenin letters.

-Correspondence, 1976, mostly personal.

-Correspondence, 1977, mostly personal, including appeals from Amnesty International and other organizations.

-Personal correspondence, 1967.

-Personal correspondence, 1952-1953;

-Personal correspondence, 1951-1953, including letters relating to German Social Democrats, Prof. Franz Neuman, A. R. L. Gurland, Stalin's death;

-Correspondence, 1977, mostly personal;

-Personal correspondence, 1965-1967, including information about Buttinger's family and that of his step-daughter.

-Personal correspondence, 1958-1962;

-Personal correspondence, 1968-1969, including Buttinger's support for McCarthy for President, letters about German Marxism and Socialism;
- Personal correspondence, 1978;
- Personal letter received 1956-1957;
- Documents, clippings, etc., of Buttiger's activities (not related to Vietnam);
- Lists of some of the books in Buttiger's private library in New York;
- Folder of information on the Dassel family of Ottawa;